

P. L. L., (1860,) art 21, sec. 18.

18. The trustees may remove the overseer and other officers and servants appointed by them, and appoint others in their place.

1878, ch 279.

19. They shall allow said overseer a sum not exceeding the sum of four hundred dollars per annum, and so pro rata during his continuance in office.

P. L. L. (1860,) art. 21, sec. 20.

20. The overseer shall keep a list of all poor persons admitted to said almshouse, and lay the same before the trustees at their regular meetings, or oftener if required.

Ibid sec. 21.

21. He shall keep a regular account, in writing, of all materials and other things that may come to his hands, and all expenses and charges attending the maintenance of the poor, and of all money received by him for the sale of the produce of their labor, and exhibit said account, under an affidavit, administered by one of said trustees, that it is just and true, to the trustees, when required.

Ibid. sec. 22.

22. He may compel any of the inmates of said almshouse to work, if of sufficient ability to do so.

Ibid. sec. 23.

23. Any one trustee may, under his hand in writing, direct the admission of any poor person into the said almshouse.

Ibid. sec. 24.

24. If any person shall sell or dispose of any strong liquor or other thing to, or purchase anything from, any inmate of said almshouse, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of forty dollars.

Ibid sec. 25.

25. All sheriffs, constables and other officers shall aid the trustees of the almshouse, and the officers appointed by them, in the discharge of their respective duties.
